Ultra NORWAY Race

#The Ultra NORWAY Race, from 13 to 15 July 2018

For the second time the Ultra NORWAY Race take place between the Lyngen Alps and Tromsø. These mountains located in the south of Tromsø, are a perfect environment to do an ultramarathon of 140 km non-stop in 48 hours maximum!

#A technical itinerary

The first part of the Ultra NORWAY Race will take place in the southern of the Lyngen Alps, competitors will pass near the mountains: Ellendaltinden (1345 m) and Rasmustinden (1224 m) to reach the Flord Sør fjorden Moskavutna.

Then competitors will take a boat to join the second part of the route that will lead them to Tromsø passing near the mountains: Hamperokken (1404 m) and Tronsdalstinden (1238 m). On the last kilometers, competitors will enjoy the Arctic Cathedral before reaching the finish line on the front of sea of Tromsø, known as the city of the adventurers.

The itinerary of the Ultra NORWAY Race is technical, varied and there are several passes at over 1000 meters of altitude. It will be punctuated with 7 checkpoints that will enable participants to find support and to ensure the safety of the group by the organization.

Last aspect of the event, in July we will have the midnight sun... So we can see the sun during the whole event! The Ultra NORWAY Race is a foot race of 140 km, 9000 D+ and 9000 D-, in 48 hours to conquer the Lyngen Alps under the dazzling brightness of the Arctic.
